Washington, D.C. (May 21, 2018) - This July 4th, guests at The Hay-Adams, located at 800 16th Street NW in Washington, DC, 20006, can experience the excitement of the festivities far above the bustling crowds attending the Capitol Fourth fireworks on the National Mall. With unrivalled views of the White House and the National Mall beyond, The Hay-Adams' Top of the Hay is the venue of choice to soak in the views and watch the country's best fireworks display.

One must book early for The Hay-Adams "4th of July" package, which includes a luxuriously appointed guestroom created by the renowned designer Tom Pheasant, a full three-course dinner for two with wine pairing, followed by a sparkling soirée on the 9th floor, at the legendary Top of the Hay, overlooking the White House, Washington Monument, and the National Mall. From this perfect perch, patrons gather to view the Capitol Fourth's spectacular fireworks display, while enjoying a full open bar, butler passed cocktails, and Pastry Chef Elizabeth Weinberg's house-made delights, including ice creams and candies, ideal for a summer night.

Guests can enjoy the comfortable elegance of The Lafayette while partaking in a three-course, prix-fixe menu reflecting the holiday, artfully prepared by Executive Chef Nicolas Legret with his culinary team. The menu features refreshing offerings such as Chilled Avocado Gazpacho with tomatoes brunoise, pickled red onion, chili oil; Grilled Asparagus, Summer Baby Vegetable Salad, lemon ricotta, fresh herbs vinaigrette; Earth and Eats, Heirloom Tomato Carpaccio, prosciutto crostini, aged balsamic vinegar and Seafood Plate, with Cajun cocktail sauce, Maine lobster, jumbo shrimp, cocktail crab claws. Entrée choices include summer favorites such as Handmade Pici Pasta with roasted tomato sauce, baby zucchini, broccoli, onion, red bell pepper; Pan Seared Maryland Jumbo Lump Crab Cakes with yellow corn purée, baby sweet roasted peppers, cucumber, radishes, avocado; Buttermilk Fried Organic Chicken Breast with mashed potatoes, red cabbage slaw, petite romaine, mustard jus; Snake River Beef Strip Loin with Pommes Ana, roasted barbecue baby carrots, cherry tomatoes, peppercorn sauce. For a sweet finish, guests can enjoy Nellie & Joes Key Lime Pie with graham cracker and blueberry cheesecake ice cream; Black Forest Parfait with cherry compote, chocolate cake, and Chantilly cream; Granny Smith Apple Tart with vanilla bean ice cream and caramel, or Strawberry Rhubarb Shortcake with powder biscuit and whipped cream.

Dinner reservations are available from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. and are subject to availability. All dining reservations must be made at the time of booking and are for in-house guests only.

The Hay-Adams “4th of July” package is available from $1,089 (excluding tax) for a superior room for two adults. Children aged six to twelve years joining in the celebration may be included for $125 per child, and children under five years are complimentary. Reservations can be made by calling (202) 638-6600 or (800) 424-5054. A credit card is required at the time of booking for the prepayment deposit. For guests who wish to explore the wonders of Washington, DC a little longer, additional nights are available from $339 per night (excluding taxes).

The Hay-Adams is located at 800 16th Street, NW, Washington DC, 20006, across Lafayette Square from the White House. The historic Hay-Adams offers guests Washington's most prestigious address with views overlooking the White House, Lafayette Square and St. John's Church, the "Church of the Presidents." Ranked the No. 1 Top Hotel in Washington, DC and the No. 5 Best Hotel in the United States by Condé Nast Traveler Reader's Choice Awards in 2017, the hotel is just minutes from the Smithsonian, the Museums, the Washington Monument, the National Mall, as well as convenient to Metro stations and the convention center.
