Washington, DC, (September 10, 2018) - The Hay-Adams, a top destination for romantic interludes, engagements and weddings, is pleased to introduce the Privacy Please Package created to inspire couples to commence their new year rejuvenated. Designed to make it easy to disconnect and decompress, this package offers luxuriously appointed Junior Suite accommodations. Here one will find a bottle of chilled Taittinger Champagne awaits them to savor at their leisure, perhaps after the one-hour in-room massage for two, which is also included in this relaxing getaway. Melt away the stresses of the day-to-day wearing the package keepsake plush microfiber robes. There are also luxurious Etro® toiletries, a candle and slippers that may turn bath time into a Zen experience; staff will even draw one's bath upon request.

Feel like napping? Recline on goose-down pillows with custom Italian bed linens including personally monogrammed pillowcases to be enjoyed on site, which can be packed and brought home as a memento, along with the Privacy Please sign. Whether opting to secure phones and laptops in the in-room safe for a total digital detox, or enjoying an array of complimentary in-room entertainment choices, at day's end hot chocolate is part of the nightly turn-down ritual intended to help welcome sleepy-time.

Guests will wake up each morning of this two-night stay package to enjoy a full American breakfast for two. Couples can dine in the privacy of their suite or in the elegant sun-lit Lafayette Room, with windows looking out over Lafayette Square and the White House.

Additionally, those who reserve the package for a one-bedroom Lafayette Park View Suite will receive caviar for two with their Champagne, as well as a three-course dinner for two one evening, personally curated from the Lafayette Menu by Executive Chef Nicolas Legret. Dinner is served in the spacious, elegant separate living/dining room of the suite.

The Privacy Please Package, is available from January 2nd - February 28, 2019 with rates from $995 per night for a Junior Suite for two adults, or $2,000 per night for a one-bedroom Lafayette Park View Suite (excluding taxes) based upon a two-night minimum stay.
